PART VIII- PROCEDURE

§123. Payment of tax and refunds.

(1) All taxes that are required to be paid under this Chapter and all returns that are required to be filed shall be paid to and filed with the Secretary of Finance.

(2) No refund or credit shall be allowed after one year of the over-payment of tax. [P.L. 1989-50 §23; amended by P.L. 1991-134, §2(9).]

§124. Tax forms.

The Secretary of Finance may prescribe the forms of all returns required to be furnished under the provisions of this Chapter or provide for other methods of filing returns and may provide in such forms for the giving of such information as he may deem necessary or advisable. All information required by the form of any return must be included in the return. No return shall be completed unless or until it is signed by or for the employer, business or other person liable to make the return, or by someone authorized to do so on behalf of such employer, business or other person. The Secretary of Finance may require that, if any person or persons actually prepare or sign a return for another employer, business or other person, a form stating such fact and authorizing the person to sign such return shall be signed by the person so preparing or signing the return and also, by the employer business or other person in whose name the return is filed. The Secretary of Finance may by regulation define the classes of persons to whom this provision shall apply. [P.L. 1989-50, §24.]

§125. Assessment by Secretary of Finance.

(1) Upon the failure of any person, business, or employer to make and file a return required by this Chapter within the time and in the manner and form prescribed, or upon failure to pay any amount due, the Secretary of Finance may notify such person, business or employer of such failure and demand that a return be made and filed and that the tax be paid as required by this Chapter. If such person, business or employer upon notice and demand by the Secretary of Finance fails or refuses within thirty (30) days after receipt of said notice and demand to make and file a return and pay the tax required by this Chapter, the Secretary of Finance may make a return for such person, business or employer from any information and records obtainable, and may levy and assess the appropriate amount of tax. Such assessment shall be presumed to be correct unless and until it is proved incorrect by the person, business or employer disputing the amount of the assessment. Such assessment may be amended by the Secretary of Finance if it is determined to be incorrect.

(2) All persons, employees, employers and businesses required to make and file returns under this Chapter shall keep and maintain accurate records for a period of three (3) years and said records may be inspected and audited at any reasonable time by the Secretary of Finance for the purpose of administering the provisions of this Chapter.

(3) In all cases where taxes assessed to persons unknown are delinquent and unpaid when due, action may be brought by the Secretary and the defendant may be named as unknown. In any such case, it shall be a good and sufficient service of summons, binding on all parties in interest, if under the order of the court the title and the substance of the action and summons, including a return day not less than three (3) from the date of that issuance of such summons, and calling on all parties in interest to appear and defend, shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the Republic, and the court is given jurisdiction to order the service. In the summons and in the notice published, a brief description of the property assessed shall be given. Any judgment entered against the defendant shall be enforced only against the property for which the tax was assessed, unless the defendant has appeared in the action and defended on the merits, in which case the defendant shall be liable to a personal judgment with respect to the claim so defended.

(4) Every nonresident person who, jointly, severally, or jointly and severally, is subject to tax under this Chapter, shall file with the Secretary the name and address of a person residing within the Republic upon whom process may be served, and in default of such designation, and if the nonresident person cannot be found in the Republic, service of process in any action for the collection of the taxes may be made on any manager, superintendent, or other person in charge, employed in the carrying on of the occupation, trade, or business, or the Commanding Officer of the United States defense site in the Republic in the case of United States Contractors, has like effect as if the person so served had been designed by the nonresident as the nonresident's agent for such purpose; provided that nothing therein shall preclude the service of process in any other manner provided by law. [P.L. 1989-50, §25; amended by P.L. 1991-134, §2(10).]

§126. Lien on property.

(1) All taxes imposed or authorized under this Chapter shall be a lien upon any and all property of the person or business obligated to pay the taxes, and may be collected by judicial foreclosure upon such property.

(2) The lien imposed by subsection (1) shall not be valid against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (3) has been filed by the Secretary.

(3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) shall be filed with the Clerk of Courts in Majuro. The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (2) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice of lien.

(4) Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of release of any lien imposed with respect to any income tax not later than thirty (30) days after the day on which:

(a) the Secretary finds that the liability for the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereto, has been fully satisfied or has become legally unenforceable; or

(b) there is furnished to the Secretary and accepted by him a bond or letter of credit that is conditioned upon the payment of the amount assessed, together with all interest in respect thereof, within the time prescribed by law (including any extension of such time), and that is in accordance with such requirements relating to terms, conditions, and of the bond and sureties thereon, as may be specified by such regulations.

(5) In any case where there has been a refusal or neglect to pay any tax, or to discharge any liability in respect thereof, whether or not levy has been made, the Attorney-General or his delegate may direct a civil action to be filed in the High Court of the Republic to enforce the lien of the Republic under this Chapter with respect to such tax or liability or to subject any property, of whatever nature, of the delinquent, or in which he has any right, title, or interest, to the payment of such tax or liability. Civil actions brought for the collection of tax shall be brought in the name of the Secretary of Finance.

(6) The court shall, after the parties have been duly notified of the action, proceed to adjudicate all matters involved therein and finally determine the merits of all claims to and liens upon the property, and, in all cases where a claim or interest of the Republic therein is established, may decree a sale of such property by the proper officer of the court, and a distribution of the proceeds of such sale according to the findings of the court in respect to the interests of the parties and of the Republic. If the property is sold to satisfy a first lien held by the Republic, the Republic may bid at the sale such sum, not exceeding the amount of such lien with expenses of sale, as the Secretary directs.

(7) In any such proceeding, at the instance of the Republic, the court may appoint a receiver to enforce the lien, or, upon certification by the Secretary during the pendency of such proceedings that it is in the public interest, may appoint a receiver with all the powers of a receiver in equity. [P.L. 1989-50, §26; amended by P.L. 1991-134, §2(11); P.L. 1992-1 8, §2(8).]

§127. Levy and distraint.

(1) If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same within ten (10) days after notice and demand, the Secretary may collect such tax (and such further sum as shall be sufficient to cover the expenses of the levy) by levy upon all property and rights to property, (except such property as is exempt by law) belonging to such person or on which there is a lien provided in this Chapter for the payment of such tax. Levy may be made upon the accrued salary or wages of any officer, employee, or elected official of the Republic, or any agency or instrumentality of the Republic, by serving a notice of levy on the employer of such officer, employee, or elected official. If the Secretary makes a finding that the collection of such tax is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of such tax may be made by the Secretary and, upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, collection thereof by levy shall be lawful without regard to period provided in this Section.

(2) The term “levy” as used in this Chapter includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5), a levy shall extend only to property possessed and obligations existing at the time thereof. In any case in which the Secretary may levy upon property or rights to property, he may seize and sell such property or rights to property (whether real or personal, tangible or intangible).

(3) Whenever any property or right to property upon which levy has been made by virtue of subsection (1) is not sufficient to satisfy the claim of the Republic for which levy is made, the Secretary may, thereafter, and as often as may be necessary, proceed to levy in like manner upon any other property liable to levy of the person against whom such claim exists, until the amount due from him, together with all expenses, is fully paid.

(4) There shall be a requirement of notice before levy as follows:

(a) Levy may be made under subsection (1) upon the salary or wages or other property of any person with respect to any unpaid tax only after the Secretary has notified such person in writing of his intention to make such levy.

(b) The notice required under Paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, no less than 30 days before the day of the levy, be:

- (i) given in person;
- (ii) left at the dwelling or usual place of business of such persons; or
- (iii) sent by certified or registered mail to such person’s last known address.

(c) Paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not apply to a levy if the Secretary has made a finding under the last sentence of subsection (1) that the collection of tax is in jeopardy.

(d) The notice required under Paragraph (a) of this subsection shall include a brief statement which sets forth in simple and nontechnical terms

- (i) the provision of this Chapter relating to levy and sale of property;
- (ii) the procedures applicable to the levy and sale of property under this Chapter;
- (iii) the administrative appeals available to the taxpayer with respect to such levy and sale and the procedures relating to such appeals;
- (iv) the alternatives available to taxpayers which could prevent levy on the property;

(v) the provisions of this Chapter relating to redemption of property and release of liens on property; and

(vi) the procedures applicable to the redemption of property and the release of a lien on property under this Chapter.

(5) The effect of a levy on salary or wages payable to or received by a taxpayer shall be continuous from the date such levy is first made until such levy is released.

(6) Any person in possession of (or obligated with respect to) property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made shall, upon demand of the Secretary, surrender such property or rights (or discharge such obligation) to the Secretary, except such part of the property or rights as is, at the time of such demand, subject to an attachment or execution under any judicial process.

(7) If a levy has been made or is about to be made on any property, or right to property, any person having custody or control of any books or records, containing evidence or statement relating to the property or rights to property subject to levy, shall upon demand of the Secretary, exhibit such books or records to the Secretary.

(8) Any person in possession of (or obligated with respect to) property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made who, upon demand by the Secretary, surrenders such property or rights to property (or discharges such obligation) to the Secretary shall be discharged from any obligation or liability to the delinquent taxpayer and any other person with respect to such property or rights to property arising from such surrender or payment.

(9) As soon as practicable after seizure of property, notice in writing shall be given by the Secretary to the owner of the property (or, in the case of personal property, the possessor thereof), or shall be left at his usual place of abode or business. If the owner cannot be readily located, or has no dwelling or place of business within the Republic, the notice may be mailed to his last known address. Such notice shall specify the sum demanded and shall contain, in the case of personal property, an account of the property seized and, in the case of real property, a description with reasonable certainty of the property seized.

(10) The time of sale shall not be less than ten (10) days nor more than forty (40) days from the time of giving public notice under subsection (9). The sale shall be conducted according to regulations adopted by the Secretary.

(11) Any person whose property has been levied upon shall have the right to pay the amount due, together with the expenses of the proceeding, if any, to the Secretary at any time prior to the sale thereof, and upon such payment the Secretary shall restore such property to him, and all further proceedings in connection with the levy on such property shall cease from the time of such payment.

(12) There shall be exempt from levy that property exempt from the Enforcement of Judgment Act (30 MIRC 1).

(13) No levy may be made on any property if the amount of the expenses which the Secretary estimates (at the time of levy) would be incurred by the Secretary with respect to the levy and sale of such property exceeds the fair market value of such property at the time of levy. [added by P.L. 1991-134, §2(12).]

§128. Transferred assets.

(1) The liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer in the case of a tax imposed by this Chapter, shall, except as provided in this Section, be assessed, paid and collected in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as in the case of the taxes with respect to which the liabilities were incurred.

(2) Any liability referred to in subsection (1) may be either as to the amount of tax shown on a return or as to any deficiency or underpayment of any tax.

(3) The period of limitations for assessment of any such liability of a transferee shall be as follows:

(a) in the case of the liability of an initial transferee, within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the transferor;

(b) in the case of the liability of a transferee of a transferee, within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the preceding transferee, but not more than three (3) years after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the initial transferor;

except that if, before the expiration of the period of limitation for the assessment of the liability of the transferee, a court proceeding for the collection of the tax or liability in respect thereof has been begun against the initial transferor or the last preceding transferee, respectively, then the period of limitation for assessment of the liability transferee shall expire one year after the return of execution in the court proceeding.

(4) As used in this Section, the term transferee includes:

(a) any recipient of any transfer in bulk and not in the ordinary course of business of the transferor's business of a major part of the materials, supplies, merchandise or inventory;

(b) any recipient of a fraudulent conveyance.

(5) In proceedings before the High Court the burden of proof shall be upon the Republic to show that a petitioner is liable as a transferee of property of a taxpayer, but not to show that the tax payer was liable for the tax. [added by P.L. 1991-134, §2(12).]

§129. Examinations of books and witnesses.

(1) For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, making a return where none has been made, determining the liability of any person for any tax or the liability at law or in equity of any transferee of any person or in respect of any tax, or collecting any such liability, the Secretary or his delegate, is authorized :

(a) to examine any books, papers, records, or other data which may be relevant or material to such inquiry;

(b) to summon the person liable for tax or required to perform the act, or any officer or employee of such person or any person having possession, custody, or care of books of account containing entries relating to the business of the person liable for tax or required to perform the act, or any other person the Secretary may deem proper, to appear before the Secretary at a time and place named in the summons and to produce such books, papers, records, or other data, and to give such testimony, under the oath, as may be relevant or material to such inquiry; and

(c) to take such testimony of the person concerned, under oath, as may be relevant or material to such inquiry.

(d) to inspect all daily sales records and to obtain correct copies of such records for the purposes of this Chapter.

(2) The purpose for which the Secretary may take any action described in Paragraph (1), (2) or (3) of subsection (1) include the purpose of inquiring into any offense connected with the administration or enforcement of the tax laws.

(3) If any person is summoned under the tax laws to appear, to testify, or to produce books, papers, records, or other data, the District Court or High Court shall have jurisdiction by appropriate process to compel such attendance, testimony, or production of books, papers, records, or other data.

(4) Whenever any person summoned under this Section neglects or refuses to obey such summons, or produce books, papers, records, or other data, or to give testimony, as required, the Attorney-General may apply to the District Court or to the High Court for an attachment against him as for a contempt. It shall be the duty of the Judge to hear the application, and, if satisfactory proof is made, to issue an attachment, directed to some proper officer, for the arrest of such person, and upon his being brought before him to proceed to a hearing of the case, and upon such hearing the judge shall have power to make such order as he shall deem proper, not inconsistent with the law for the punishment of contempt, to enforce obedience to the requirements of the summons and to punish such person for his default or disobedience. [added by P.L. 1991-134, §2(12).][subsection (1) above amended by P.L. 2004-15, adding paragraph (d).]

§130. Review.

(1) If a decision of the Secretary of Finance is adverse to the taxpayer, in whole or in part, the taxpayer shall have the right, within ninety (90) days from the date of such decision to institute an action for review, irrespective of the amount, in the High Court. Such action shall be commenced by filing a petition setting forth all errors alleged to have been committed by the Secretary of Finance in his determination of the assessment, the facts relied upon to set aside the errors, and a prayer for appropriate relief. The Secretary of Finance or his successor in office shall be the defendant in such proceedings.

(2) When the decision of the Court or an appeal therefrom becomes final, the Secretary of Finance shall upon presentation of a certified copy of the decree, make such adjustments as are necessary to correct, amend or abate the assessment, and to determine whether or not any additional amount should be assessed.

(3) Where the assessment is paid, in whole or in part, after the filing of the petition, the Court shall not thereby be deprived of jurisdiction. [P.L. 1989-50, §27; amended by P.L. 1991-134, §2(13).]

§131. Taxes collected as part of the revenue of the Government.

(3) The Secretary of Finance and every employee of the Department of Finance, while in such employment, shall not engage in the business or profession of tax accounting, or accept employment with compensation from any person, firm or corporation for the purpose, directly or indirectly, of preparing tax returns required by the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands. Nor shall such person accept any employment for the purpose of advising or preparing materials or data, or the auditing of books or records to be used in an effort to defeat or cancel any tax or part thereof that has been assessed by the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands.

(4) No employee of the Department of Finance shall be required to produce in any court any matter or thing relating to the taxes imposed by this Chapter coming under his notice in the performance of his duties as an employee of the Department of Finance, except when it is necessary to do so for the purpose of carrying into effect any provision of this Chapter or any other enactment imposing duties or taxes payable to the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands.

(5) Information as to the amount of income or any particular set forth or disclosed in any report or return required under this Chapter may, upon request of a committee appointed by the Marshall Islands Nitijela, be furnished to the committee, but the committee or any member, clerk, or other officer or employee of the Nitijela shall not disclose any particular of the information so furnished, except to law enforcement officers for the purpose of aiding the detection or prosecution of crimes committed in violation of this Chapter.

(7) Nothing herein shall prohibit the Secretary of Finance or his employees from compiling and publishing statistics or information generally, from the returns filed, so long as there is no reference to a particular return and the statistics and the information do not in effect divulge the contents of any one return.

(8) Every person who violates the provisions of subsection (2), (3), (4), or (5) of this Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars (US $500) or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding six (6) months, or both. [P.L. 1989-50, §29.]

§133. Regulations.

(1) The Minister of Finance may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Chapter, for carrying out and giving effect to the provisions of this Chapter, and in particular with regard to the exemption of certain businesses and other forms of taxation paid under any other law.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) of this Section shall have same force and effect of laws as if enacted by the Nitijela.

(3) The provisions of the Marshall Islands Administrative Procedure Act 1979 shall not apply to the regulations made under this Section. [P.L. 1991-134, §2(14).]

upon conviction, in addition to the penalties imposed under Section 141 of this Chapter, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars (US $1,000) or, if a natural person, to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both. [P.L. 1989-50, §31.]

§141. Civil penalties.

The criminal penalties imposed by Section 140 of this Chapter for violation of provisions of this Chapter shall be separate from, and in addition to, all other penalties or interest provided for in this Section. The following civil penalties are hereby levied and shall be assessed and collected:

(a) except as may be permitted by the Secretary of Finance pursuant to Section 108 of this Chapter, if any taxpayer fails to make and file a return required under this Chapter, on or before the date set, unless prior to the date such taxpayer applied for and received an extension for reasonable cause, two percent (2%) of the tax shall be added to the tax for each thirty (30) days or fraction thereof between the due date of the return and the date on which it is actually filed; provided, however, that the minimum penalty under this Paragraph shall be fifty dollars ($50.00)

(b) any employer required to furnish a written statement prescribed in Section 105(2) of this Chapter who willfully fails to file such statements on the date prescribed therein, shall pay a penalty of five dollars fifty dollars ($50.00) for each such failure;

(c) after demand, in any case where the Secretary of Finance makes a return and assesses a tax after a taxpayer's failure or refusal to make and file a return and pay the tax required by this Chapter, the taxpayer shall pay a penalty of twenty-five percent (25%) of the tax assessed, in addition to the penalty in Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section;

(d) if any part of any deficiency is due to fraud, with intent to evade the tax or any portion thereof, fifty percent (50%) of the total amount of such deficiency, in addition to the penalties provided in Paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Section and in Section 144 below, shall be assessed and added to the deficiency amount; and

(e) if any tax or penalty imposed by this Chapter is not paid on or before the date prescribed for such payment, there shall be collected, in addition to such tax and penalties, interest on the unpaid balance of the tax principal, at the rate of one per cent (1%) month from its due date until the date it is paid.

(f) Any person required to collect, truthfully account for, and pay over any tax imposed by this title who willfully fails to collect such tax, or willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be liable to a penalty equal to the total amount of the tax evaded, or not collected, or not accounted for and paid over. The term "person", as used in this corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

(g) The following provisions shall apply with respect to the enforcement of a levy:

(i) Any person who fails or refuses to surrender any property or rights to property, subject to levy, upon demand by the Secretary, shall be liable in his own person and estate to the Republic in a sum equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of taxes for the collection of which such levy has been made, together with costs and interest on such sum from the date of such levy. Any amount (other than costs) recovered under this Paragraph shall be credited against the tax liability for the collection of which levy was made.

(ii) In addition to the personal liability imposed by subparagraph (i) of this Paragraph, if any person required to surrender property or rights to property fails or refuses to surrender such property or rights to property without reasonable cause, such person shall be liable for a penalty equal to fifty percent of the amount recoverable under subparagraph (i). No part of such penalty shall be credited against the tax liability for the collection of which such levy was made. [P.L. 1989-50, §32; amended by P.L. 1991-134, §2(15).][penalties amended by P.L. 2004-15]

§142. Forfeiture.

(1) Whenever any person who is liable to pay any tax imposed by this Chapter upon, for, or in respect of, any property sells or causes or allows the same to be sold before such tax is paid, with intent to avoid such tax, or in fraud of the tax laws, any debt contracted in such sale, and any security given therefor, unless the same shall transferred to an innocent holder, shall be void, and the collection thereof shall not be enforced in any court.

(2) If such property has been paid for, in whole or in part, the sum so paid shall be deemed forfeited to the Republic.

(3) Any property on which, or for or in respect whereof, any tax is imposed by this Chapter which shall be found in the possession or custody or within the control of any person, for the purpose of being sold or removed by him in fraud of the tax laws, or with design to avoid payment of such tax, or which is removed, deposited, or concealed, with intent to defraud the Republic of such tax or any part thereof, may be seized, and shall be forfeited to the Republic.

(4) It shall be unlawful to have or possess any property intended for use in violating the provisions of the tax laws, or regulations prescribed under such laws, or which has been so used, and no property rights shall exist in any such property. A search warrant may issue as provided in the Criminal Procedures Act (32 MIRC 1) and the Rules of Criminal Procedures for the seizure of such property. Nothing in this Section shall in any manner limit or affect any criminal or forfeiture provision of the tax laws, or of any other law. The seizure and forfeiture of any property under the provisions of this Section and the disposition of such property subsequent to seizure and forfeiture, or the disposition of the proceeds from the sale of such property, shall be in accordance with existing laws or those hereafter in existence relating to seizures, forfeitures, and disposition of property or proceeds, for violation of the tax laws.

(5) Any property subject to forfeiture to the Republic under any provision of this Chapter may be seized by the Secretary.

(6) The proceedings to enforce such forfeitures shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem in the District Court or High Court.

(7) In case bond shall have been executed and the property returned before seizure thereof by virtue of process in the proceedings in rem authorized in subsection (6) of this Section, the bailiff shall give notice of pendency of proceedings in court to the parties executing said bond, by personal service or publication, and in such manner and form as the court may direct, and the court shall thereupon have jurisdiction of said matter and parties in the same manner as if such property had been seized by virtue of process aforesaid. [P.L. 1991-134, §2(16).]

§143. Deduction of income tax from payment due to defaulters.

(1) Where any employer or employee has made default in the payment of any Tax on Gross Revenue or Tax on Wages and Salaries, the Chief may from time to time by notice in writing, require any person to deduct from any amount payable or to become payable by that person to the employer or employee, such sum as may be specified in the notice, and to pay every sum so deducted to the Chief, to the credit of the employer or employee, within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(2) No such deduction under this Section shall be made from wages or salaries payable to any person.

(3) Any notice under this Section may at any time be revoked by the Chief by a subsequent notice to the person to whom the original notice was given.

(4) A copy of every notice under this Section shall be given to the employer or employee by the Chief.

(5) The sum deducted from any amount pursuant to a notice under this Section shall be deemed to be held in trust for the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands and shall be recoverable in the same manner and in the same respects as if it were tax payable by the person to whom the original notice was given.

(6) Every person who:
